ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAMS.

HAVAS AGENCY

Paris, 6th

Results of elections not yet known, but probabilities point to a larger number of Conservatives in the new Chamber than in the former one. This partial success has filled the Conservative journals with enthusiastic articles celebrating their triumph.

Paris, 6th (evening)

Results up to the present:—
165 Conservatives.
141 Republicans.
202 Empates.

These wholly unexpected results cause the liveliest surprise here.

PRESS TELEGRAMS.

Berlin, 5th—Germany has recognised the rights of Spain to the possession and occupation of Yap. In return Spain allows Germany the right to trade in Carolina waters and to establish a coaling station on one of the islands. The intervention of his Holiness Leo XIII. is thus rendered unnecessary, as the question has been settled to the satisfaction of both Powers.

Rome, 4th—Amongst the archives of the Vatican important documents have been found with reference to the Carolina Islands, which circumstance will, no doubt, facilitate the arrangement of the pending difficulties between Spain and Germany.

London, 5th—Six thousand Russians have entered Bulgaria. This number represents the Volunteers who have arrived disguised as private persons, priests, commercial travellers, etc.

The strengthening of the Roumelian frontiers is being effected with the greatest activity.

The inhabitants of the island of Crete are in great excitement, owing to the turn of events in Roumelia. They have sent a petition to the Powers asking for the observance of the Berlin Treaty, or, otherwise, to be annexed to Greece.

Copenhagen, 5th—In reply to the Bulgarian deputation, the Czar stated that he would endeavour to bring about a peaceable solution of the Roumelian question.

London, 5th—The Czar's reply to the Bulgarian deputation has caused great satisfaction here.

Philippopolis, 5th—The British Consul has arrived on a mission to bring about a reconciliation between Prince Alexander and the Sultan.

Paris, 5th—The elections are taking place without any disturbances. The results will not be published till to-morrow. The Republicans are certain of a majority in the provinces.

Madrid, 5th—Yesterday 175 fatal cases of cholera occurred in Spain.

Rome, 5th—In Palermo 146 fresh and 70 fatal cases of cholera are reported. In Palma 19 fresh and 9 fatal cases; in other towns of Italy 12 fresh and 5 fatal cases have occurred.

Berlin, 5th—According to the Emigration figures there has been a decrease of 30,000 in German emigration, as compared with the corresponding period of 1884.

New York, 5th—In thirty counties of Kansas cholera is committing great ravages in porcine stock.

St. Petersburg, 5th—A telegram has been received announcing the occupation by the English of Herat, and stating that the inhabitants have received orders to evacuate the town immediately. It is also stated that the inhabitants refused to comply with said orders and defended themselves behind entrenchments against the advance of the English who are being largely reinforced.

This telegram is not much credited.

Paris 5th—The elections for the chamber of Deputies took place yesterday. No disturbances.

Paris 5th (evening)—The results known up to the present give 200 elections of which 130 are favorable to the Republican party.

Paris 5th (night)—Results known; 451. Definite; 267, of which 135 are of the right and 132 of the left scrutin; 184.

Rosario 6th—It is stated that Com. Loza has been degraded owing to his refusal to proclaim Dr. Galvez's candidature.

To-night the Industrial Club will meet to have "a canje de ideas" on the subject of founding an Escuela de Artes y Officios.

The heat is intolerable and a storm may be expected to break out.

Montevideo 6th—It is stated Col. Pampillon has been imprisoned. The Razon is responsible for this statement.

Government has ordered from Europe 4 mitrailleuses, 8000 Remingtons and 3,000,000 cartridges.

CURSO FORZOSO.

Great debate.

Article 4 modified.

Gold contracts valid.

This all important measure came up again yesterday for discussion and with the report of the committee on art. 4 of the Senate law, which provided for the payment of all gold contracts before the "curso forzoso" decree in National Bank paper.

The day was dark and rainy, and many thought there would be no quorum, but at half past 2 o'clock the hall was thronged with both senators and deputies, and the chandeliers lighted, as without the gas there was no seeing anything, so dingy was the sala.

It appears that the Senate in the morning held a secret session, to consider the loan, at which Dr. Pellegrini Minister of War, and Mr. Hansen, sub-secretary of Hacienda, attended, but there was no finding out anything about what was done, although it was very generally rumoured that the loan was at last concluded and nothing further remained but to draw for the money; but this news needs more confirmation than the mere rumours in the anto-Chambers of Congress.

At half past 2 o'clock, sharp, Dr. Ruiz de los Llanos, speaker, declared the session open: 45 members present. The act of the previous session was read and approved of.

Dr. Torrent asked liave of absence for 5 days which was granted.

Next followed the order of the day. The secretary read the report of the committee, 3 members being opposed to art. 4 of the Senate, and 2 in favor.

Dr. Villamayor proposed that Dr. Civit, of the minority, should speak first. Dr. Civit, Deputy of Mendoza, said that in yesterday's session he had expressed his opinion on art. 4; he had showed its constitutionality and its necessity and, not to fatigue the house, he would not repeat his arguments in favor of art. 4. Dr. Solveyra had laid much stress on the decision of the Supreme Court of the United State, but in 1870 the United States Congress passed a law annulling the law of 1869. Art. 67 of the Argentine constitution gave the Government full powers to make money &c. and prohibits the Provinces from starting banks of emission.

Deputy Civit continued quoting laws and decisions in support of Art. 4, and, in the case of the Argentine Bank in Rosario, he cited a decision of the Supreme Court, Judge Carril and others, in support of Art. 4 and its strict constitutionality. It is all very well for some parties to oppose this article, but we must ever remember that there is another party, as strong and as numerous, in its favor. He quoted the "Codigo de Comercio" and the opinion of Velez Sarsfield in support of his views, and, not to tire the House, he would not go through all the decisions of the French courts in favor of the theory.

Dr. Civit said that, to his mind, there was no other way out of this "curso forzoso" but to pass Art. 4. If not passed, the banks will have to pay all their deposits in gold and collect from their debtors in gold. In the whole country there is not gold enough for such transactions. Blue ruin must come on the whole nation if Art. 4 is not passed. The banks will have to take over all the properties of their debtors, since no one will be able to pay up in gold. The National Treasury will be in a still worse plight; and if Art. 4 is not passed, the differences that Government will have to pay between paper and gold will be at least twelve millions. Formerly we were better off; we had gold and paper dollars, but for the last few years all that has changed and everything is now in national dollars. He had spoken with hundreds in this market and, from all that he could learn, opinion was more in favor than against Art. 4.

Dr. Villamayor, Member for Buenos Aires, replied. He considered Art. 4 contrary to good morals, sound principle, and public honesty. No Legislature would pass such a law as this which injures the citizens' rights, contracts, interests, and properties. Article 4 he considered a violation of everything, and all the quotations by the member for Mendoza amounted to nothing, since sound legislation was opposed to Art. 4. I don't deny to Congress the power to make laws, but such laws must be just and good and based on sound principles. Deplorable, indeed, would be the state of things, if the member of Mendoza's theory held sway. France had passed a "curso forzoso" law, but not even the guillotine could give value to her "assignats, and when dragged down by the German war she again passed a "curso forzoso" law, the people were free to contract in whatever money they thought proper.

Public opinion in this country was pronounced against this art. 4. The members of our high commerce had petitioned this House to throw it out. Art. 4, if passed, would bring ruin on thousands and sully the honor and credit of the country. Congress must look well to the protection of public interests, and the liberty of contract to the citizen was one of the very greatest of public interests. For these reasons, he asked the House to throw out art. 4 in toto, and to pass the bill as the majority of the committee had wisely sent it to the House (cheers.)

Mr Davila then addressed the House in a strong, logical and powerful speech, which at time so carried away the House that the gallery and the chamber broke out into applause. He said that he considered the question, the most serious one that has as yet come before Congress. The question is the very axle-tree of our credit, our trade and our commerce, and I come here to oppose with all my might and my ability this most monstrous Article 4. As Sr. Davila's speech is too important to be reduced into a few lines, we hold it over for to-morrow for full publication. Mr. Davila called on the Secretary to read the petition and also the names, representing millions, attached to it. The Secretary read the petition and began to read the names;—Agar Cross & Co, which was so unintellegible that when he got to Moore & Tudor, Mr Funes said 'basta,' and the house thought so; the reading of the names was not proceeded with. At the conclusion of Sr. Davila's speech there was a burst of applause, and the house adjourned for ½ hour. Most of the Deputies crowded round Sr. Davila to congratulate him on his brilliant speech.

On the speaker returning and calling the House to order, Sr Davila again addressed the House, and continued his speech, attacking Art. 4 with the most powerful arguments for over an hour.

Dr. Pellegrini, Minister of War, replied in an able and powerful speech, showing the absurdity of the Committee throwing out Art. 4 without inserting some other article perhaps not so extensive but at least explanatory of the relations of Dr. & Cr. by 'curso forzoso.' Dr Pellegrini rebutted the arguments of Sr. Davila, and showed that when "orden publico" is invoked the Government has the most extensive powers. He referred to the case of the s.s. Matteo Bruzzo, that arrived at our port with 2000 emigrants on board, who, according to the Constitution had the most perfect right to land in this country; yet the steamer was sent back, and no civilized Government denied to the Argentine Government the right so to act. As regards "curso forzoso" it was completely a matter of "orden publico," for the day might come when the Government could not go on, not having a dollar in the treasury. Government would be impossible, and therefore it is that this measure is considered by all writers to come within the category of "orden publico."

Dr. Pellegrini continued with very powerful arguments, and seemed to gain over the opinion of the House. He said "en fin" that if the committee had proposed some article similar and perhaps not so comprehensive as Article 4, he could better understand them, but to strike it out in toto, and leave the law as they proposed would give rise to endless lawsuits and make things infinitely worse than they are Cheers.)

Mr. Gillbert proposed to amend Art. 4 leaving out the last paragraph, and excepting all contracts where the payment of specific gold was conditioned.

Sr. Davila replied to Dr. Pellegrini and refuted many of his arguments.

Sr. Funes made a most amusing speech, which threw the house into laughter.

Sr. Posse next spoke, and also opposed Art. 4 which he said would bring discredit on the country.

Mr. Lainez proposed the following article:—

All contracts or obligations entered into previous to the date of "curso forzoso" decree, 9th Jan. 1885 can be paid off and discharged in National dollars "curso legal", except those contracts in "oro sellado" or in special gold, which do not come within the terms of this Article.

Several Deputies opposed this Art. proposed by the Deputy of Buenos Aires, and a scene of great confusion ensued, the President of the Chamber ringing his bell furiously to restore order.

At last it was decided to vote the Article proposed by Mr. Lainez in parts. First part put and voted.

THE GOMENSORO EXPEDITION TO THE CHACO CENTRAL.

Asuncion, Oct. 5th.

Commander Gomensoro has returned from the Chaco Central and is at present sojourning in this city for a short time. This commander and lieutenants Eulogio Ramallon and Manuel Cordoba at the head of 50 horse-soldiers, fully equipped and armed, crossed the Bermejo at President Roca in search of Cacique Mesagche who has newly submitted to the National authorities. When the tribe was on the point of marching, several envoys from Cacique Emata, the chief of the Orejuda tribes, arrived and intimated to Commander Gomensoro that he and his men should at once retire from the Bermejo at once, otherwise they should all be put to the sword. The envoys, furthermore, stated that Emata felt compelled to take such steps, seeing that now he and his Orejudos are reduced to a small piece of territory, whereas formerly they were at liberty to wander over all the lands between the Bermejo and the Pilcomayo.

Commander Gomensoro marched to the North-West of Chapapeguay, crossing the total extent of the territories included between the Bermejo and the Pilcomayo. At Canangray on the banks of the Pilcomayo, he encountered Emata at the head of a thousand Indians armed with lances. Having wasted all their ammunition the soldiers were obliged to fight "á l'arme blanche" against tremendous odds; but the Indians were finally completely defeated, leaving on the field 58 killed, 23 prisoners, 4000 bows and arrows, and all their cattle, consisting of 80 good horses, one thousand sheep in splendid condition and 80 cows.

It appeared from the accounts of prisoners taken during the preceding days that the Mascoy and Orejudo tribes were rallying and, with their combined forces, were about to attack the various settlements on the banks of the Bermejo. These reports were now confirmed by the prisoners taken from Emata.

Continuing their march towards the East and following the course of the river, the expedition surprised the 'tolderias' of Cacique Diauroy and his Indians. Notwithstanding their disadvantage the Cacique was able to muster about 1300 Indians, and at the head of these forces made some resistance. The Indians, however, were dispersed after a sharp struggle in which they lost 30 killed and a considerable number wounded, and were obliged to cross the river. Forty horses and mules, 250 sheep and an immense quantity of arrows fell into the hands of Gomensoro and his men.

The results of the expedition are as follows: 21 'tolderias' attacked, 230 Indians killed and 30 made prisoners, 300 horses, 2000 sheep, 100 cows, and 800 arrows captured.

The arrows have been burned. Amongst the killed figures the famous Cacique Emata and three of his most conspicuous chieftains. The expedition explored 400 leagues of territory situated between the Bermejo, Pescado Flaco, and Pilcomayo. The expedition lost one man killed, the wounded have completely recovered. Com. Gomensoro only took a small number of prisoners in obedience to orders. In all the encounters the soldiers fought against terrible odds, say one against 80. The expedition shows of what stuff Argentine soldiers are made.

Commander Gomensoro brings with him a valuable collection of curiosities, amongst others a large piece of iron, the fragment of an immense œrolite. The Chaco frontiers are now definitely established, and this extensive and fertile territory can now be handed over to the colonist. To carry out the expedition Government has been put to no expense whatever, the considerable number of cows, horses and sheep having sufficed to meet all the wants of the brave soldiers.

Emata's skull is in the possession of Commander Gomensoro, who will place it alongside that of the English Cacique, killed by him during an expedition in 1883.

This expedition was brought to a close after a lapse of 2 months and 9 days, since Commander Gomensoro left Presidencia Roca on the 16th of July. and arrived at Fort Fotheringham, on the banks of the Pilcomayo, a short distance from Asuncion, on the 25th of September.

ROSARIO.

(From our own Correspondent.)

October 2nd.

The rise and rapid progress of the town of Rosario is indicative of the future grandeur of the Republic, for where the elements exist to change a little insignificant village within twenty years into a large commercial emporium, it is very evident the country possesses a great future. The early years of the United States present no such precedent; and we must remember that the Argentine Republic is still in its infancy, but with the advantage of having as schoolmaster the spirit of progress of the Nineteenth Century.

Undoubtedly the advent of the arrival of the good ship 'Englishman,' with the first load of rails, marks the epoch of transition. It was an interesting occasion. Between the then town and the temporary wharf, lay an expanse of pampa, now, of course, all turned into populous streets. About a score making the "tout ensemble" of our respectable or aristocratic gentry, drove to the mole and had a barrel of beer distributed to the crew of the 'Englishman,' while they descended into the hold and with considerable difficulty but much enthusiasm got up the first rail and carried it up the steep barranca, and planted it in triumph on the top. Had the contractors or directors had any sentiment about them, (what a ridiculous supposition!) they would have preserved that rail as a precious memorial.

Those were the days when my old friend Bruce was making a fortune with his little steamer Dolorcitas, the only steamer we knew of then, and which, I believe, Captain Bruce afterwards put into a glass case and hung up in the spacious saloon of one of the splendid steamers of which he was proprietor in more stirring but not such happy times. Those were the days of the celebrated Cocktail Club, of which, if I mistake not, the Editors of the STANDARD were elected honorary members.

The works of the Buenos Ayres and Rosario Railway are progressing rapidly. They say that the rails of the last section, between San Nicolas and Rosario, will be laid by November, but the construction of certain bridges and culverts will cause some delay, thought I believe, if you are good enough to invite me to a Christmas turkey on the 25th next December, I will be able to transport my valuable person to Buenos Ayres in a Pullman car.

It will be curious to know what effect the opening of this line will have on passenger traffic of the steamers. In my opinion the Railway will get the larger share. This would not be the case were passengers to be taken from the mole in Rosario and landed at a mole in Buenos Ayres and vice-versa. As it is the voyage to and from the two cities by steamers is by no means agreeable. You get on board here for instance in the afternoon, and are roused up at cock-crow at Campana where you are hurriedly transferred to a train without time to take a cup of coffee or see after your luggage. If you take the San Fernando route, you run the risk of the steamer sticking in the mud; and if you choose the direct route to Buenos Aires, you have often to get on shore in carts and run the gauntlet through an army of insolent Ligurian porters. The advantages of the through railway are obvious. One is not hurried at either end; and if good comfortable sleeping cars are put on, like those on the Central Argentine, the trip will be quite luxurious. The only way that the river route might compete with the railway for the passenger traffic would be to put on light draught fast steamers to run to the Catalina's wharf, which for this purpose must be extended half a mile further into the Plate.

The extension to the Sunchales will be rapidly pushed forward, and when finished, will absorb the traffic of a number of the Northern colonies, their inhabitants being but too glad to be able to send their produce direct to Rosario or Buenos Ayres. We shall then have four lines of railway diverging from our city.

The object that took the active and intelligent agent of the Lamport and Holt Line up to Santa Fé, is highly important. Everyone knows, except those who do not know, that the entrance to the harbour of Santa Fé, is extremely difficult during most of the year. The Messrs Hume have solved the question of giving the town a port on the main river. They are running an extension along the Northern side of the Riachuelo, and building wharves on the Parana at a place called the Rincon, immediately above the entrance of the Riachuelo that leads to Santa Fé. It was this that Captain Ferguson went up to examine, and he reports than when the works shall be finished he will be able to send his steamers to discharge and load there. This will be a grand thing for sleepy Hollow, and may possibly waken up the old town. Captain Ferguson intends sending up railway materials to Santa Fé and Parana without transhipping them in Rosario. I wonder what the ghost of the little 'Dolorcitas' would say, if she could turn herself into a Flying Dutchman, and revisit her old haunts? Amongst the first material that Capt. Ferguson will deliver direct to the new port of Colastine, the terminus of the Santa Fé line of railway, will be 17 first and second class carriages, 9 engines and 147 waggons.

I have been very unjust to the products of our Rosario vineyards. Our Lord Mare, probably having read my strictures in the STANDARD, ordered the Municipal chemists, who is not exactly a Kyle, to analyse the manufactured wines of a certain vineyard with the result that they are absolutely superior to any of the genuine articles. After this we must acknowledge that the Club Industrial is in the right. Shall I send you a dozen of a nice brand? Your much praised "Valiente Puntano" can't hold a candle to it (for fear it would blaze up.)

Our crazy prisons are bursting with criminals, for outrages are becoming so common that I think I never knew crime to be so ripe. As no punishment is meted out to the offender beyond a residence more or less prolonged in prison and which is no punishment at all to the majority of criminals, even those of the worst description, murderers, homicides etc. do not try to evade the police. They allow themselves to be caught and carried off to jail with the greatest equanimity, and when interrogated confess their iniquity with the most charming frankness. We have now under lock and key, symbolically at least, a dozen men whose attrocious deeds deserve the gallows, besides a hundred or so of other dilinquents, guilty of serious offences. The cost of such a number of rascals, in the way of beef and biscuit is considerable, and I wonder the Government don't see that it would be economy to shoot them, at all events the worst of them.

The Neva's Mails.

Wednesday, September 9th.

A correspondent at Madrid informs us that Germany's demand for reparation, in connection with the event of the 4th inst., has been received by the Spanish Govenment, whose answer, expressing sincere regret, was despatched yesterday evening. According to a Reuter telegram, Count Solms yesterday lodged an official complaint of the attack made upon the German Legation. Our Paris correspondent reports the reception of intelligence from various quarters to the effect that Germany has decided upon abandoning all claim to the island of Yap. At Valencia an excited mob has torn down the escutcheon and broken the flagstaff of the German Consulate. Popular indignation is calming down in Madrid.

Sir H. D. Wolff is not expected to arrive in Cairo before the beginning of October. The Kassala garrison is being amply victualled by the Ben Amer tribe.

On Monday 1,875 fresh cases of cholera and 634 deaths from the epidemic occurred in Spain. Cholera continues in the Italian provinces of Parma and Caserta, as well as at Marseilles and Toulon, in the South of France.

Owing to lack of wind Monday's match between the Puritan and the Genesta, off Sandy Hook, was postponed to yesterday, when just before the two craft crossed the starting line the Genetta's bowsprit ran through the American yacht's mainsail and snapped off short. A further postponement for a few days has thus been rendered necessary.

Mr. Chamberlain, speaking at Warrington last night, ridiculed the invitation of Lord Randolph Churchill to the Whigs to join the Conservatives; but, at the same time, he warned the moderate Liberals that the great body of the electors would not rest satisfied with such a meagre programme as improved local government and transfer of land, declaring that the proposals of the Radicals must not be excluded from consideration. He also called attention to the significance of Lord Randolph Churchill's silence on Mr. Parnell's latest demand, and declared, in the most emphatic manner, that while the Radicals were ready to grant to Ireland all the rights conferred on the rest of the kingdom, they would never, under any circumstances, consent to dismember the Empire.

Within the next few days a large number of troops are expected to arrive at Portsmouth from Egypt, and the arrangements for their reception have been completed.

Orders have been received at Portsmouth Dockyard for the construction of a powerful turret ship of 12,000 tons.

A resolution has been adopted by the Cardiff Health Committee, calling for more stringent quarantine regulations at that port. The steamer Crindau has re-entered dock, the crew being in perfect health.

At Bow-street Police Court yesterday, the examination in chief of Mrs. Armstrong was concluded, after which counsel cross-examined her daughter Eliza and herself at considerable length. Mrs Armstrong's cross-examination had not concluded when the court adjourned till Saturday.

Chiefly in the hope of a panic solution of the Hispano-German difficulty, the Stock Markets were firmer yesterday. Amongst Foreign Bonds Spanish rose nearly ¾, and the inquiry extended to Austrian, Egyptian, Italian and Turkish. English and Canadian railways also improved, but American declined. At the Bank £50,000 in gold was withdrawn for Lisbon.

Things are very dull at Balmoral; and as the weather has been unsettled the Queen has not yet made any of her usual excursions, and has only once driven up to Braemar. Her Majesty is going shortly to pass a few quiet days in the mountain solitude of the Glassalt Shiel. Prince Henry of Battenberg and Prince Christian Victor have been out deer-stalking on the Ballochbuie and Abergeldie ground, and several stags have been killed, most of which fell at a drive in the woods last week. The Princes are to try their luck at salmon-fishing in the Balmoral water on the Dee as soon as the river gets into order. Fish are running up in shoals, and there ought to be good sport shortly. The Duke and Duchess of Connaught are coming to Balmoral as soon as they return from Germany. The leading members of the British Association are to make an excursion to the Castle from Aberdeen next Saturday. They will arrive from Ballater at four o'clock, and after staying about an hour, during which they are to lunch, they are to return by way of Glenmuick, being driven each way in carriages provided by the Queen.

Berlin, Sept. 8

The semi-official North German Gazette, in an article to-day upon the Caroline Islands question, says:

The want of reflection displayed by the Spanish press and people in their mode of receiving the news of the landing from the German gunboat Iltis at Yap has caused us real surprise, seeing that we are accustomed, when divergencies arise between Governments, not to depart from the usual routine of diplomatic negotiation. The German gunboat received several weeks ago the order which it has just carried out, and no one could then have supposed that a measure such as been repeatedly adopted in the recent settlement of colonial questions would render Spanish public opinion incapable of reasoning. In relations with other countries such a state of things would be inconceivable. Even if the German Government, making allowance for the unjustifiable excitement of the Spanish nation, had wished the Caroline Islands question a res integra, to be dealt with by subsequent negotiations, it would have been impossible for orders to reach the Iltis in time, owing to the absence of any means of communication The Iltis received at the proper time instructions to touch at Manila after having effected the occupation of Yap, and to communicate with the German Government by telegraph from that place. This will also show that we never believed for a moment that the news of the hoisting of the German flag in Yap would be received by Spain in the way it has been.

The Vossische Zeitung, commenting upon the situation at Madrid, observes that the statement that King Alfonso could at present made no concessions to Germany without risking his throne possesses as little weight as is to be attributed to the idea of replacing the present Administration by a Sagasta Cabinet.

The National Gazette say:

In the interest of Spain it is to be hoped that King Alfonso may prove strong enough to gain the victory by means of prudence and moderation. It is quite erroneous to suppose that Germany is deeply interested in Spanish domestic politics. One thing is now clear, however, namely that the prudence manifested in not pursuing the proposal to admit Spain among the Great Powers, and in not raising the German Legation in Madrid to the rank of an Embassy, was fully justified in the case of a country so little able to observe the forms in which intercourse between the Powers is conducted. Such a State is by no means fit to have a seat and a voice in the Supreme European Council.

THE ANNAMITE SURPRISE AT HUE.

Paris, Sept. 8.

All the soldiers and sailors who took part in the campaigns in the Far East in 1883, 1884, and 1885 are to have a silver medal, bearing on one side the effigy of the Republic, and on the other the words "Tonkin," "China," "Anuam," with a few names of the principal engagements. General de Courcy's report on the fighting at Hué in the beginning of July will shortly be published. Meanwhile a short account thereof has been received by the Havas Agency from its correspondent at Hué:

The attack, entirely unforeseen, began at one a.m. on July 5. General de Courcy had given a soirée at the Legation, and was sleeping there. The Legation was assailed by 1,500 Annamese troops quartered around it, and there were only 160 French soldiers for its defence. General de Courcy assumed the command of this small body of men, and placing two at each window kept them hard at work for several hours. Had he been sleeping at the Mangka on the other side of the river, he would have had 1,800 soldiers under his orders. It was these troops who fighting their way to the Legation, eventually saved it. The combat lasted till seven a.m., the Annamese fighting desperately all the time. At the end carnage was fearful, and for two days the whole of the citadel, except the King's palace, was pillaged by the French, who filled their pockets with the coin of the country, silver bars worth 60f, afterwards selling them for 20f. The writer bought about 16lb weight of these bars.

An extraordinary report was spread this morning to the effect that General de Courcy, the Commander-in-Chief of the French forces in Annam and Tonkin, had gone mad. There is not the slightest foundation for this ridiculous canard.

THE BRITISH ASSOCIATION.

Aberdeen, Sept. 8.

All the arrangements for the opening meeting to-morrow were completed this evening, and the Aberdonians may be congratulated on the preparations they have made for their numerous and distinguished visitors. The reception room at Marischal College is, if anything, a trifle too comfortable, and so far as the rooms devoted to sectional meetings are concerned, although they are not so conveniently placed as they were at Glasgow and other places in recent years, they are, with one exception, only a short distance from the reception room. The exception is section F, which is at least half a mile distant from the others. Many of the southern visitors will be surprised to find that Aberdeen is a watering place. Although it is the seat of more than one great industry and although, like St. Andrews, it is an old University town, "looking out on the cold North Sea," the savants will find, within five minutes of the Queen's statue in Union-street, a beautiful beach, with bathing accomodation not inferior to that of Brighton. A shower of rain greeted some of the later arrivals to-night, but the meteorological prospects are favourable. Among the visitors who came to-day were the Rev. Canon Tristam, the well-known Palestine traveller, and Sir R. Temple.

As might be expected, the Excursion Committee are in difficulties. They have already received about 1000 applications for tickets. The most popular excursion, of course, is that to Balmoral, and for this alone a large number of tickets have been applied for. Next in importance is the excursion to Haddo House, the residence of the Earl of Aberdeen, Here a large party will assemble. Dunecht, the seat of the Earl of Crawford and Balcarres, which will also be visited on Saturday, is next in importance. A large party will also visit Drum Castle, one of the oldest feudal castles in the kingdom, the residence of Mr. Forbes Irvine, convener of the country. There are four other excursions arranged for Saturday, and nine excursions for Thursday in the week following, including visits to Invercauld, Braemar, Banff, and a second visit to Haddo House.

The arrivals to-day included General Walker, Professor Judd, Mr John Murray, Dr John Rae, Mr H B Dixon (who will deliver the usual lecture to workmen on Saturday night,) Professor Max Schuster, Professor Reynard of Brussels, M Jules Vuylsteke, and Professor Dewan.

The largest dock in the world is at St. John, New Foundland. It is 600 feet long at the top, 558 feet long upon the line of keel blocking and 132 feet wide, and the drift over gate still 25 feet at high tide.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Last night the House of Deputies in Congress decided the great 'curso forzoso' Art. 4, about which there was such deep anxiety. We are happy to say that the voting resulted most honorably for the credit and good name of the country. All contracts in special gold or 'oro sellado' must be paid in gold, and only those contracts in 'moneda nacional oro' can be paid off in curso legal.

We welcome back to the Plate Mr. Wm. R. Gilmour, Argentine Consul, Liverpool, who has such a wide circle of friends in this country. The Plate has no better friend in England than Mr Gilmour; and we hope that he will enjoy his trip and return with increased confidence in the country. Mr. Edward Madero, "concessionaire" of the new Port, has also arrived back in the mail, having completed all his arrangements; and now he begins work, assisted by the best engineering skill England can afford. We also welcome to the Plate Mr. Webster, contractor, and Mr. Hawkshaw, chief engineer of this great work.

Good news for our colleagues and the commercial public in general. General Osborne is arranging with Government for the unification of the various telegraph lines between this and Europe, via Galveston. Should he succeed, as we earnestly hope, it will be a last and lasting honor to the able diplomatist, who resigns office today. We understand that telegrams will then come out to the public one quarter the actual price.

Our musically minded subscribers will be glad to see that the ex-National opera company are giving their "funcion de despedida, to-night in the Politeama. The piece selected is Huguenots with the exquisitest of duos from Rigoletto, in which our friend baritone Menotti shines, thrown in as a 'llapa.' They can count on a very large and appreciative audience.

The event of the day yesterday was the rain. The ball opened at 8 a.m. with such a flash of chain lightning and such a roar of thunder that most people felt for a moment as if they had been scalped. The advanced guard of dust that preceded the rain promoted business somewhat, by ruining lots of clothes and furniture. It's a very curious fact that a dust storm generally catches people with their best clothes on and their "sala" windows open. The rain was pretty general, and will do the camp a world of good. After this burster we may prepare for the heat.

The Carolinas question is settled; Spain gives Germany a coaling station and trading rights in the islands. The dignity of our Spanish friends is saved, and they have made a favourable impression on the world by their pluck in the matter.

Everybody praises the impartial and excellent conduct of the police, and blames that of several Jueces de Paz at the inscription of Sunday. So manifestly unfair were the latter functionaries that they have been hauled over the coals by the Federal Judge. In that "oi polloi" parish San Cristobal Colonel Bosch caught the Commissary at the head of a group of politicians, and on Monday called on him to resign. He says he won't; but Colonel Bosch has asked the Minister of the Interior for the stroke of the pen that will speedily finish him.

A leading colleague remarked very properly yesterday morning that the functions of a Government should be limited to providing for the Safety, Health, and means of Viability of the public. If our rulers had only acted on this very sound maxim, the country would not be in its present awful mess. There is too much legislation in these countries. Here is what the lamented President Garfield said on this subject:—"It is a safe and wise rule to follow in all legislation that whatever the people can do without legislation will be better done than by the intervention of the State or nation."

Are there no Municipal Inspectors of buildings? Some of the houses now being run up in town have not an ounce of lime in the mortar, and must tumble some day, in all probability before they are finished.

The news that the British are now in complete possession of Herat is more grateful. Lord Dufferin has managed this admirably. It's to be hoped the G.O.M. wont get into power again in November and spoil all Lord Salisbury has done.

We don't wonder a bit that President Roca and his Finance Minister should both be sick. The Ship of State is passing through a kind of Hell Gate, up to the eyes in the financial breakers, and the crew playing a fierce game of elections below. As a witty subscriber said to us yesterday. "The country is off its head financially. It's nothing but a "contra-danza" (Auglice country dance) to a different tune every day. Hands across and back again—Up the centre, down again—Waltz to your partner and return to your place."

The gas companies made a stiff addition to their month's profit yesterday. It was as dark as pitch or an Ethiopian countenance all the morning, and the gas was lighted all over town for two or three honrs; a stiff extra consumption.

The Senate has postponed 'sine die' the consideration of the Bill proposing a generous hand-over to Messrs Villanueva and Noailles, C.E.'s, for professional and patriotic services. The country cannot afford it, although the two gentlemen named well deserve it. Patriotism is an awfully dear commodity in these regions, although there is such an enormous supply of it always on hands.

Old Ranchos is going in for two days' jollification on the 11th and 12th. A brass band has been ordered from La Plata. We're greatly surprised and profoundly grieved to hear that Ranchos has no 'banda de musica' of its own.

The Capital Lottery gave $129,500 for the city charities in the third quarter of the yeer. It is now in its last quarter, and few, except the Lord Mayor, will regret its being knocked on the head. What will become of the horde of old and young vagabonds that sell tickets when New Year's Day comes round?

More money wanted! This time it is only a fleabite of £50,000 for our noble relative Uncle Sam, for some locomotives and other 'fixings' he has supplied to the National Railways.

A girl with three arms is an attraction in a Louisiana show. She can play the piano with two of them and turn the music with the other, thus saving the use of a young man.

By all that's ridiculous! The flagway nuisance, which has kept the public growling so long, and smashed so many shins, has all to be opened up again. It appears that all the house proprietors, to save the cost of new flags, put down the old ones again in the self same spot. The Lord Mayor did not mean this at all, at all; but intended that brand new flags should be laid down all over the city; but he forgot to say a word about it, and now he is fining his victims, in addition to making them do the work over again, an expense many of the poorer class of small house-owners can in no way afford. How thoroughly characteristic of dear Buenos Aires and its civic authorities this absurd muddle is.

There is some unpleasantness about getting in the cash for the big charity ball last week. Some people say they did not receive their invitations; others that they sent them back; others that they have already paid for them. Of course all these assertions are the politest of polite fictions, and the poor Damas of Mercy are highly unlikely ever to see a copper of the money. Cash down ought to be the motto on all these festive charitable occasions. The thing is being overdone, and society and the public are getting rather tired of it.

Mr Neves wants 200,000 nats from the National Government for some "tosca" destroyed in port San Martin, at the Retiro, and over which, he says, the Government gave him some right in 1877.

Judge Arrotea has ordered Mr Joseph Perez, escribano, to make out a list of the books and furniture left by the late Mr Terence Moore, a task that won't take up much of his time. The other properties belonging to deceased are: Two houses in Calle Cuyo; another in Calle Balcarce; Moore's Corner opposite the River Plate Bank; land in Flores; ditto in Pueblo Mitre (Where's that?); quinta in Calle Cordoba; estancia at San Pedro; 16 leagues of National lands; 83 Argentine Gas shares; 115 Old Gas shares; $5150 Municipal Bonds, and large sums of ready money in the Bank of Ireland and the banks of this city.

A 'conocido' and a 'cronista' had a shine in the street on Monday, all because our young colleague cut up in a most trenchant and mirth-provoking way a sublime poetical effusion of his own composition read by the other at the Rocha banquet. Poets who cannot stand ridicule should not write at all. If "hell hath no fury like a woman scorned," certainly, earth has no more laughable spectacle than the fury of an amateur poet scorned.

The utter folly of having thought that the Riachuelo could suffice as a port for B. Ayres is now becoming daily more apparent. The river is so full of vessels of all sizes that there is not room for another dingy; and there are seventy vessels in the Outer Roads waiting to get in. This shows how our trade is growing.

The papers make ugly revelations about the recently discovered frauds on the Santa Fecino Railway. The culprit is a Spaniard, and the swindling was effected in league with several "comerciantes." of Rosario. Names. Names.

Four raving madmen were locked up in Rosario last week. Not bad for a single week. Gin "del pais" did it.

Again no meeting of the Consejo Deliberante on Monday. This is about the twentieth time in succession they have refused to come to the scratch about the French wooden pavement.

A lot of caves of Adullam have been discovered under the National College; also a lot of "antiguas balas."

The Juez de Paz, who potted a colleague with a revolver the other night in Calle Rivadavia, is still under lock and key.

The reason for the impecunious squeeze in the G. P. O. is, that the diligence owners threatened to stop carrying the mails unless they were paid, and the money intended for the wages of the poor clerks and letter-carriers was handed over to them. This is a peculiarly hard case.

The London correspondent of the Paris Morning News says that German is still the native tongue of the whole Royal Family, and that he can testify that Wales even "speaks with ever so faint a trace of the Teutonic accent." His r particularly is always the German r, but, oh! snobbery of snobbery, he asserts that "all the women who go to court invariably affect the German r too, and you hear them gurgling it with great persistence, just as at one time they imitated the Princess of Wales's limp."

Mr. Sydenham Payne is the new A. V. C. (Not A. B. C.) at Dover. Note:—A. V. C. means Argentine vice Consul; and not A. B. C. means not a bad Consul.

One day, last summer, as two English students were on their way for a day's fishing on the Earn, they passed through a field where a young rustic beauty, "whose ruddy cheeks made blush the rose," was thinning turnips. One said to the other—'Let me give yon a laugh at the expense of this lovely nymph. Ho, there, my beauteous lily, born to blush unseen, come here and I will kiss you," said the would-be wit. She looked up with a sweet smile and a merry twinkle in her eyes, and said, "Na, na, I ne'er was sae fond o' veal as to kiss a calf." The laugh was now at his expense.

A good instance of absence of mind was that of an American editor quoting from a rival paper one of his own articles, and heading it "Wretched attempt at wit."

What in the old version was called "leasing" in the new version is termed "lying, or falsehood." The real estate agents have brought this upon themselves.

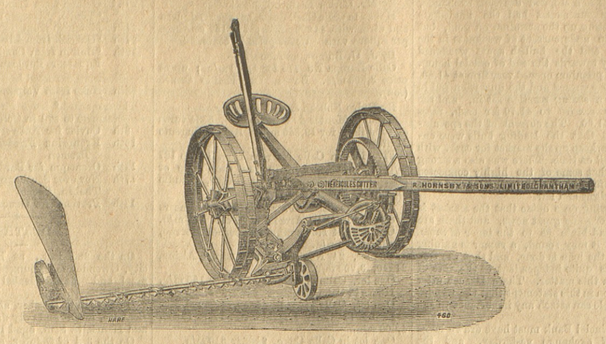
HERCULES MOWER AND FERN CUTTER



his machine has been specially designed for the Colonies and other new countries, for cutting strong thistles, fer and light scrub on rough land, and has been most successful in Autralasia and South America. It has very high wheels and is of great strength combined with lightness in draught.

The cutting apparatus consists of 2 sets of knives, one set fixed to the Bar in place of the Fingers, and the other driven by the Crank plate and connecting Rod in the usual way.

The unanimous verdict of all who have worked this machine is that it is the

"Most useful and economical implement on the estancia."

Nueva Bomba Patente
'SIMPLEX'
La Bomba mas barata, mas duradera y eficaz
Inventada hasta hoy.

La falta de una Bomba simple, eficaz y barata ha sido sentida hace mucho tiempo, que sin perdida de fuerza ni peligro de ser atascada pueda bombar toda clase de liquidos.

Para suplir esta falta ha sido inventada—

La nueva Bomba
"SIMPLEX"

La cual es igualmente util tanto para bombar liquidos de todas clases como para pozos y algibes.

Damos a continuacion el resumen de algunas de sus ventajas:

Las valvulas son hechas de modo que ni paja, arena, hojas etc. etc., puedan atascarla ni evitar que funcione.

Es sumamente portatil y puede ser trasferida de los arroyos, algibes, pozos y la cañeria desunida con la mayor facilidad y sin labor.

Esta bomba es especialmente adaptable a una Estancia para bombar agua llenar barriles en los arroyos, vaciar baños para ovejas, regar quintas, bombar liquidos en hormigueros, nidos de bichos etc, etc. etc.

Dysentery, Cholera Fever, Ague Coughs, Colds, &c.
Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne
(Ex Army Medical Staff)

IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—See Times, July 12th 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates health action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensive.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout Cancer Toothache, Meningites, &c.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemist, Medical Hall, Simla, Jan-5th 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 22, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London—"Dear Sir, we embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly-esteemed medicine, DR COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances ad infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of DR. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE in Diarrhœa, and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Cholera: Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a "deliberate breach of faith on the part of the chemist to prescriber and patient alike." We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain, His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists."

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all classes."

CAUTION—None genuine without the words 'Dr J. Collis Browne or the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

Gold	41.60 o/o prem.
Cedulas A	100½
Cedulas F	81½
Cedulas G	87½

The news spread this morning that the Provincial Bank had stopped drawing exchange, and the announcement had the immediate effect of putting up the premium on gold, but there was an undercurrent of weakness in the speculation and the bullish spurt weakened considerably towards the end of official hours.

The gold premium opened very firm at 41.50, a slight pause ensued and the quotation fell to 41.30, but a strong reaction set in, and the market was carried to 41.70 for cash, rates closing at 41.60. The current of the speculation shewed that the leading bulls were endeavoring to keep up the market for cash, with a view to sell on time. There was also a strong suspicion that some of the highly connected and best informed dealers in the market were letting go right and left.

The knowing ones opine that the market is on the eve of some great news, and there are already broad hints as to the tenor of same. Strange as it may sound, a rumor is gaining belief that the loan is done, and that the Government is quite independent of the vote of Congress in this matter. There is such utter contradiction in this statement that the wonder is how people can attach any importance to the report.

The Provincial Bank must have drawn large amounts of exchange yesterday, and the plethora of gold thrown at the ring confirmed the surmise. The exchange committee of the Bank were busily engaged handing out bills to takers till half-past four, and the heavy demands of the market no doubt obliged the Board to suspend drawing this morning.

Operations in gold for cash embraced $151,000; the market opened at 41.50 and closed weak at 41.60. Fifty thousand were sold for the 15th at 41.20 and 41.50. Operations for the end of the month amounted to $260,000; rates opened at 40.30, rose to 40.50 and closed at 40.60. Eighty thousand dollars were sold for the end of November at 39.50. and 40 o/o, and 40,000 for the end of the year at the same rates. About half a million dollars were sold during official hours.

The boom in the favorite Scrip of the National Bank has been short-lived; it has completely fizzled, and not a single Certificate or Share was sold this morning. The paid-up shares of the Bank are at present in the hands of about forty shareholders; the bulk is carried on borrowed money at 8 o/o. The share ring, however, are quite confident that their operation will turn out trumps before the end of the year. What with increased issue of notes, Government patronage and full dividends, the stock ought to command a higher premium than that quoted on the black board. There is no market for the stock at present, and the supply is quite as small as the demand.

The exchange market continues at a very low ebb. Operations this morning were very small and rates ruled weaker than usual. All drawers ask 46⅛d and 4.92 to 4.93 frcs. If this weakness continue, the market may prepare for another stiff drain of gold for the next packet. Telegrams from London announce that a steamer has shipped 50,000 sovereigns for the Provincial Bank in this market. We may safely calculate the efflux of gold at treble the influx.

A fainting tendency was remarkable in Series G Cedulas this morning. The fact is that these new Cedulas are coming too fast on the market, and at the rate they are being issued a fall is imminent. The quotation for cash is pretty well held up, but sales on time are now under 87. Operations embraced 42,000 at 87 to 87½ for cash, and 51,000 for the end of the month at 87⅜-½. Twenty thousand Series A changed hands at 100½ and 24,000 F at 81 to 81½.

The fourteen leagues of land sold yesterday by Messrs White and Benitez are situated in a place called Los Morteros, in the Province of Cordoba, quite close to the frontier of Santa Fé, and not distant from Sunchales, the proposed terminus of the Buenos Ayres and Rosario Railway. Messrs Milesi Brothers, from the Humboldt Colony, we understand, are the buyers of this large property, for which they pay at the rate of 5,300 m/n gold per league. These gentlemen bought to-day two leagues of land higher up, situated in the Province of Santa Fé, at reserved rate. Broker, the Santa Fe land king.

Our old friend Truth has another desperate fling at the credit of the Argentine Government, and pounces on the obnoxious 4th Article of the Forced currency Bill and its sanction by the Senate as the very best proof of dishonesty in the Government and Congress. The Corrientes muddle is bolstered up as an excellent sample of discipline in the Argentine army. Our colleague's language, however, has improved and is very much more moderate than usual, a milk-and-water style compared with the diatribes that appear in the leading papers in this city. In fact, the speeches of some members of Congress are far more damaging than Truth's latest effusion.

The produce markets are dull, and the arrivals of new wools are far from being up to the expectations of those who had hoped to see already several thousand arrobes in the sheds. Wool will come in very slowly this month, and the market lacks all the buoyancy and vitality of former seasons. A few "artistas" have already put in an appearance, but they do not show the vigor and dash of last year.

The Glasgow Herald of the 8th ult., an old friend of this country, has a very stiff attack on the Argentine Republic, its Government and its political and financial prospects. This attack comes from a very unexpected quarter, as the Herald has always been a steady and well-informed friend of Argentina. They take an extraordinary view of Argentine politics abroad; they dub the running for the Presidential election, a race for a turn at the plunder.

Dr Pacheco, Minister of Finance, is laid up with a severe cold and is unable to attend the Government House. Affairs in the Finance Office are at a stand-still in consequence,

On Monday night, a general meeting of the shareholders of the Edificadora Company was held, to consider the slight unpleasantness ventilated in these columns. There was an animated discussion over the point, and the spirit of the meeting was evidently in favor of a "modus vivendi," and a special committee was appointed to study the matter, and arrive at a settlement that might conciliate mutual interests and secure reciprocal satisfaction. At foot of this column we publish a communication, referring to the meeting.

A cargo of 6,000 to 7,500 qq. of jerked beef, habanera and bonita quality, from a Gualeguaychu saladero, is reported at 22½ rls. fts. Buyer, an exporting house of the Mount. This cargo will be shipped by the Spanish barque Nuevo Vigilante.

The Maskelyne is on her way to the Plate with fifty thousand sovereigns. The Rosse left Rio last night for the Plate; she is expected in this port on the 11th, and is posted to leave on the 14th for Rio. The Biela will leave Rio for New York on the 24th; mails and passengers will be booked through from this port by the R.M.S. Neva on the 17th.

Exchange on London—
The market during the period now under review has remained in an unsettled and fluctuating condition; although the supply of bills from natural sources was unprecedently small, owing to the total absence of animation in our export business, the tendency in exchange soon after the departure of last mail declared itself in favor of buyers and rates gradually advanced, reaching as high a figure as 24½d for commercial bills and 24¾d for forward delivery. This upward movement was caused by resales of bills previously purchased, but having been checked by the extreme dulness of our export trade a reaction set in causing rates again to recede to 23¾d 90 days sight. The banks finally agreed to fix for this mail the official rate of 23¾d 90 days, but the market closes weak with little or no demand and with a renewed tendency in favor of buyers.

Bar Copper

Since our last report an extremely dull tone has prevailed in our market, as owing to the discouraging tenor of quotations from home and in view of the fluctuating condition of our exchange market, shippers did not shew any disposition to operate. In consequence only an unprecedently limited business has been transacted and we have only to report the sale of 50 tons Guayacan bars closed on the 9th at $18 f.o.b. Since then business has come to a complete stand-still, holders not being inclined to press sales and to accept offers based on last quotations.

For a parcel of 100 tons Guayacan bars which were placed in the market to-day offers did not exceed $17.35 to $17.40 per qtl. f.o.b. which thus far have not been accepted.
